Closing Prayer

We have a Family Meeting scheduled for next Sunday after morning services. We’ll be talking about another place to worship beginning June 1st and discussing member’s involvement. Please, schedule some extra time next week and join us for this important meeting.

The new House to House, Heart to Heart mail out is available on the Information Table. We’re encouraging everyone to pick up 5 copies and hand them out to your friends, neighbors and co-workers. The mailings went out to the Christmas and Wedgefield communities.

The Whitesells will be having another Dynamic Marriage class starting on March 11th. This class will be in Rockledge (just south of Cocoa). If you’re interested, or know of a couple who is, please contact Randy or Billi before the class fills up.

Our Wednesday Night Bible Class, continuing our study of Personal Evangelism, quoted from an unknown source, “This one makes a net, This one stands and wishes. Would you care to make a guess, Which one gets the fishes?” Definitely something to think about! This coming Wednesday night, we’ll be discussing “Things which hinder personal evangelism.” What things hinder you from personal evangelism? Are we ignorant of the fact that it’s our duty? Do we have no interest in the lost? Are we waiting for the church to organize a program? Are we spending all our time talking about it? Makes plans to join us Wednesday night to discuss what our hindrances’ are and how we can overcome them!

The get-together at the Carswell’s last night is what everyone needed. We had 21 people show up with all kinds of chocolate goodies! Everyone got to see their new apartment and we had fun just fellowshiping. Thank you Daniel & Shay for opening your new home and giving us some Christian fellowship!

Give 'em a Hand

Sure, holding hands with your spouse is romantic. But did you know it can be therapeutic? Neuroscientists at the University of Wisconsin and University of Virginia found that married women under extreme stress who reach out and hold their husbands’ hands feel immediate relief. And not just any hand will do—their husband’s touch proved significantly more comforting than that of a stranger.

“The effect of this simple gesture of support is that the brain and body don’t have to work as hard in response to a threat,” says Dr. James A. Coan, the study’s lead author. “It’s deeply soothing.”

So the next time you’re feeling stressed over deadlines at work, finances, or kids, grab your mate’s hand. You’ll both feel better.

“Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation.” (Mark 16:15)

Our Love and Prayers go out to...

Mrs. Tegtmier (Kristen's teacher)—Undergoing Chemo
Chris Whitesell—Making progress, but still needs prayers
Earl Knost (Pine Castle)—Several different health issues
Kathy Hood (Suzy's friend)—Cancer; Lost use of 1 lung
Ann Pittman (Christmas resident)—Health Issues/Depression
Zaira (Billi's co-worker)—Family in chaos; Things are a little better; thanks for the prayers
Sandra Bender (Dorothy Beasley's relative)—Cancer; starting radiation treatments
Evelyn Taft (Sally's friend)—Surgery
Kelley—Career difficulties/decisions concerning her job
Frank (Todd's Asst Director)—Home from hospital
Tom Leavins—Surgery last Thursday

If you worry, you didn't pray. If you pray, don't worry.

6 Misconceptions About Forgiveness

- ✗ Forgiveness isn't condoning the behavior.
- ✗ Forgiveness isn't forgetting what happened.
- ✗ Forgiveness isn't restoring trust.
- ✗ Forgiveness isn't synonymous with reconciliation.
- ✗ Forgiveness doesn't mean doing the other person a favor.
- ✗ Forgiveness isn't easy.
