January 28—Sweet Talk (Twistee Treat)

Some of the events that the Fellowship Team has planned for 2007 include a Mixed Up Dinner, a Valentine Party, a trip to the Wetlands Festival, Bowling, Canoeing or Tubing, some type of Water activity, a trip to the Holy Land experience, a trip to Dolly's Dixie Stampede or Arabian Nights, a trip to Silver Springs, and maybe another retreat at the CFBC. We'll need some volunteers to host some events. If you would like to host one of the events above, let Kelley or Preston know (Randy can also pass the information to them). Please consider hosting one of the events, one family can't do it all!

Everyone is invited to stay after services this morning and enjoy a fellowship meal with us. Our Family & Friends Day is intended to be a day we invite our family and friends to our services, so they can see how Christians worship God and interact with each other in love.

The Carswells, Whitesells, and Suzanne are at Warner Robins today. As one of our supporting congregations, Daniel will be giving them an update on our land and building progress. They'll return sometime Monday. Please keep them in your prayers: for a good presentation and a safe trip.

Help Someone Become A Christian! Last Sunday night, Daniel challenged us again this year to select someone and help them become a Christian. This year, we're going to pray for those individuals and pray for you as well, as you take the gospel to your neighbors and friends. There's a sheet on the Information Table with everyone's first name on it. All you need to do is put the name of the person you have selected to help on the right side. If you have more than one person that you're helping, put their names on the right side. We will pray for those individuals every week. Daniel has given everyone two weeks to come up with a name. On January 21st, he'll ask everyone for their names. Here's our chance to shine! With our Theme as a guide and all the lessons on evangelizing, this should be an easy task this year. Remember, you can't catch fish if your hook isn't in the water!

Welcome To Our Worship Service

"Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go." (Joshua 1:9)

This command and promise to Joshua are also for us as we embrace the upcoming year. We have no idea what lies ahead; we only know that God will go with us if we will ask him on our journey and seek to follow his will. We embrace this upcoming year as an opportunity to serve God and not as something to fear! Let's go into the new year with a boldness for Christ!

“Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation.” (Mark 16:15)

Four Ways to Rekindle Intimacy

- 1. Don't just tell your mate you love her. Tell her why you love her. She knows you love her; she craves to know why. Adding "because" at the end of "I love you" increases intimacy in your marriage. "I love you because you're so unselfish."
- 2. Reintroduce the element of surprise. Identify patterns and break routines. Become unpredictable. Celebrate anything and everything. Buy the unexpected present. Take an unplanned trip.
- 3. Strive to out-please each other. Out-pleasing each other means putting the other's happiness first - especially in the mundane moments of life. When he washes the dishes, respond by keeping the kids out of his hair while he watches the game. But . . .
- 4. Don't keep score. Marriage breaks down when you constantly compare your sacrifices to your mate's. Concentrate on your giving and you will become one. - Jim Magruder
