Do all the good you can,
By all the means you can,
In all the ways you can,
In all the places you can,
At all the times you can,
To all the people you can,
As long as ever you can.

Tonight, after evening services, our Sweet Talk will be at the Twistee Treat in front of Publix. Everyone is invited to join us, as we fellowship around some delicious soft-serve ice cream!

We invite everyone back this evening to hear our young men conduct the service for us. Your presence will encourage not only them, but us also!

There are several Sign Up Lists on the Information Table that need your attention. Please take a look at them and add your name on a couple!

Jerry & Lynn Jones and Charles Hodge Jr. will be in our area shortly. There are two different flyers on the Information Table that will give you the dates and times of each. These are excellent opportunities to grow spirituality! When people of this caliber are in our area, it would be a grave error to miss what they have to say. Come on, roll up your sleeve and get a spiritual "shot in the arm!"

Dear God, I have a problem. It's me!

Put on Love

Iwould guess that one of the first things you did this morning was pick out your clothes and get dressed. But did you remember to put on love?

No, that's not a new perfume. It's one of the characteristics Paul mentions in Colossians three where he says, "Clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience."

Wow! Can you imagine what our homes and workplaces would be like if each of us consciously put on those five qualities every morning?

The passage goes on to say, "Above all these put on love which binds everything together in perfect harmony." Love is what pulls the whole outfit together.

How much time do you spend getting dressed in the morning? And how much time do you spend putting on compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience, and above all—love?

"Carry each other's burdens and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ." (Galatians 6:2)

Ifeel so burdened myself, that sometimes I can't even see others' burdens. But Jesus reminds me that if I am to be like him, I will be a burden carrier. This is why he came, why he died, and why his resurrection is so important -- to lift from us the burdens of sin, death, and depravity. He has blessed us by carrying our heaviest burdens so that we might lighten the load of those around us.

“Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation.” (Mark 16:15)

Listening is all about understanding. "Why don't I think before I open my mouth?"

Words can be powerful. What we say can be used to honor someone or destroy them. Listening involves more than hearing what someone says.

I know a couple who came very close to divorcing. He had an affair and his wife had a hard time trusting him, especially if he was late for dinner or late coming home after work. Once when he was late, she accused him of seeing "her" again. He was about to defend himself and speak harsh words to her about "this never-ending mistrust." But instead, he thought for a few seconds before opening his mouth and realized just how forgiving and loving she is to have stayed in the marriage. Then when he opened his mouth, he spoke words of kindness and love by saying, "Thank you for your commitment to me and forgiveness. By questioning me now and then, it only proves to me how much you love me, and I'm so grateful to you!"

When he started to react, he caught himself remembering what a great wife she is. That is James 1:19 in action. What a blessing to be able to respond to any situation with positive, uplifting words. This is truly a mark of maturity. Will you take responsibility for your words when you find yourself in a potentially explosive conflict? How do you think others will respond to your positive response?
