Mar 25—Sweet Talk

We would like to thank everyone for helping with the Paper Products Drive. There’s still a couple of items that people need to bring in, that they’ve signed up for, but your response has been great and we really appreciate it! Thanks for your selfless caring.

Did you notice the “Building Meeting” scheduled on the calendar below? It’s time to meet again and make some decisions concerning the new building. All who are interested in helping make some decisions are invited to meet at the Chapel on Tuesday, March 20th, at 7:00 pm.

When an army goes into battle, it must make advances against the enemy if it expects to defeat the foe... Advancing against an enemy is not easy; it takes work. An army cannot sit in the trenches and look across a field at the enemy and say, “Yup. We ought to do something about that enemy army over there. ... We’ll work on it, and someday we’ll get around to it.” If an army did that, the soldiers would have no hope for victory; rather they would be in danger of any enemy attack that overruns their position and kills or captures them. To win in battle, an army must work at winning and go on the offensive.

Growth in the Christian life is the same as being in battle. If one expects to advance or grow and make progress against the enemy, he must work; he must be on the offensive. The only way one can overtake an enemy and defeat it is to keep advancing. Simply holding ground will not accomplish the task, and retreating certainly will cause failure.

“Therefore let us leave the elementary teachings about Christ and go on to maturity...” (Heb 6:1)

Brothers and sisters at East Orange, where are we in the battle? Are we advancing or just holding ground? What are we doing to defeat the foe? Do we truly believe that “The Battle Belongs To The Lord” as we sing on Sunday mornings? We must come together as a congregation and work as an army for the Lord. Please join in the battle; you’ve committed to attend on Sunday mornings; it’s time to show your advance by showing up every time we meet!

The month of March half over already! Randy still needs information for the March & April calendars. If you know of something happening at another local congregation, please let him know so we can get the word out. It’s encouraging to see other things happening!

Please make a note of our new web address: “east-orange.biz” It’ll have more information on it as the days go by.

For we do not preach ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus sake." (2 Cor 4:5)

Five Principles for Authentic Communication

-  Communication problems are usually heart problems.
-  Your ears are your most important communication tools.
-  Good communication doesn't happen by accident
-  The absence of conflict doesn't equal good communication
-  Motive is more important than technique

Communication leads to understanding, intimacy, and mutual valuing.
